THANK YOU to Jericho from Taxify who returned my friend's phone after it fell out of pocket and he found it and returned it to her.

I HAD ongoing hassles with my Virgin Gym account and with the help of Qhamani Mjobo we were able to sort it out. I appreciated that he waited with me at the computer terminal until it was all done and definitely all okay.

WE recently experienced a terrible tragedy and we had to bury two family members who were killed in a car accident. It was a very terrible time and everything was difficult as everyone was extremely emotional. I want to thank the extended family and the friends who gathered around to help with every detail. We had so much to arrange and between them all they organised every single little detail of the funerals and the food and began the long process of administrative paperwork, which we are still sorting out. People, in difficult times reach out to others, even if you think there is nothing you can do, I promise you there is; take the kids to school, cook a meal, lend an ear.

THANK YOU to McKenzie at our local petrol station for his always-excellent service, happy attitude and willing happy-to-help nature. He reads people magazine, so I'm going to buy the one that has this message in it for him. McKenzie, you are wonderful! Keep up the good work, we love you!
