

Mega Mall of Africa opens for business

THE mega Mall of Africa in the heart of Midrand will open its doors for business today, boasting 300 stores at a cost of R5bn. The 130 000m² shopping mall is an Atterbury project and is the largest single-phase shopping centre development in southern Africa to date. Atterbury Ceo Louis van der Watt said the intention was to create a unique shopping experience and to provide visitors with a great retail offering. "This is in line with the Atterbury vision to create working, shopping and entertainment spaces," Van der Watt said – 701656
