

Winter wonders await

Whether you're chasing school holiday entertainment, searching for your next favourite restaurant, shopping the latest arrivals, or simply looking for something new to experience, Waterfall City has you covered this July. So grab a coffee, get comfortable, and discover what's waiting for you in this month's edition of The Source.

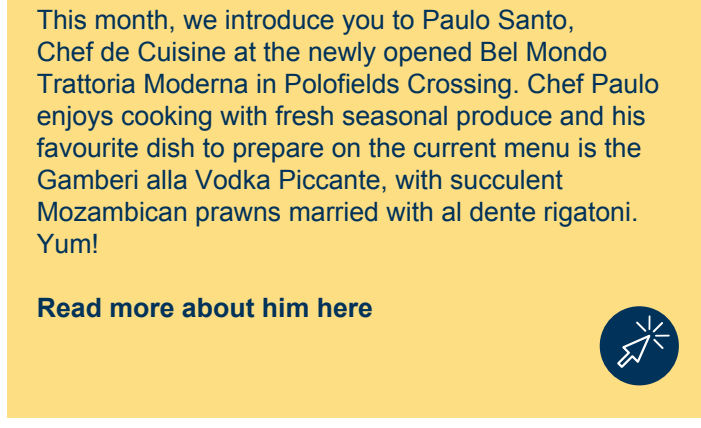

WATERFALL CITY HIGHLIGHTS

Rise against hunger

During Mandela Month, Waterfall City will once again support Rise Against Hunger Africa, uniting spaces, clients and communities to help make a meaningful difference to those who need it most. Register your team and take part in meal-packing activations at Waterfall City Park, Mall of Africa. Together we can pack more than meals – we can build connection, fulfil purpose, and share hope.

Meet the Chef

This month, we introduce you to Paulo Santo, Chef de Cuisine at the newly opened Bel Mondo Trattoria Moderna in Polofields Crossing. Chef Paulo enjoys cooking with fresh seasonal produce and his favourite dish to prepare on the current menu is the Gamberi alla Vodka Piccante, with succulent Mozambican prawns married with al dente rigatoni. Yum!

Waterfall City Conference Centre and Hotel

Waterfall City is proud to introduce a new world-class conference centre and hotel. Scheduled to open in Q1 2028, the R750 million development by Attacq Limited and Rabie Property Group, with African Rain Collection selected to operate it, will combine a state-of-the-art 1 350-delegate conference venue with a 180-room hotel. Looks like Waterfall City is 'checking-in' for growth.
